

March Articulation Activities

Complete an articulation activity each day. Speech and Language students should be prepared to discuss completed activities once school resumes.

Weeks	Day 1	Day 2	Day 3	Day 4	Day 5	Weekends
Week One	Make a list of words that have your speech sound and review them with a family member.	Look for 3 things that are seen only in March. Tell your caregiver what they are using your speech sound(s).	Name three nouns that begins with your speech sound.	Would you rather find a pot of gold or find a four-leaf clover that really did bring good luck? Why? Use your good speech!	Find a recipe on line for a dish that begins with your speech sound. Read the recipe out loud.
Week Two	The weather is finally warming up! What do you plan to do when spring is officially here? Be sure to use your speech sound(s).	Practice saying all the words on your list in a silly voice! Use your speech sound!	Find a news article online that has your speech sound. Read the article with a parent.	Think of 2 insects that are green and tell your parent what they are using your speech sound.	If you had $20 to buy something that starts with your speech sound, what would you buy?
Week Three	Spring is upon us! Name three things you can do outside in the spring time.	What would you do if you met a leprechaun? Be mindful of your speech sound!	Can you think of any months of the year that have your speech sound in them? If so, tell them to a parent.	What do you like best about St. Patrick's Day? Be sure to use your speech sound in the answer.	Make up 3 sentences using words from your word list!
Week Four	Add 5 words to your list! Say them 3 times each in a word or sentence.	Name a dessert (ex. cake, cake, or pie) that has your speech sound? Describe the dessert.	Tell your family about your day today. Be sure to use your speech sound.	Think of a word that has your speech sound with 4 to 6 syllables. Say the word. What smaller words you make from your speech word?	Does your family celebrate Easter? Talk with your family about your plans for this weekend.	